SONG NATIONAL

WE ANNOUNCE the publication of a New Canadian Patriotic Song of the better class. The verses are by MARTHA PUGH, and are a true poem, characterized by lofty ideals and blood-thrilling loyalty. The music is by GORDON V. THOMPSON, writer of LIFE SONGS and HEART SONGS, which are having an exceptional sale. This song is stronger than THE MAPLE LEAF, and is more rousing than O CANADA. The Chorus appears on the back of this number. Try it over.

Price 25 Cents

MARCH NATIONAL is an instrumental arrangement of the above, by LEWIS OWEN. This is the best March in years and introduces several National Airs. Of interest to all Canadians—English, Irish or Scotch. Hear it.

PIANO

p With feeling

A hap - py pair they stroll a - long the shore, ——— And A - lone she walks a - long the moon - lit shore, ——— And

tell their love a - mid the break - ers' roar. ——— They dreams of days that come a - gain no more. ——— Her soon must part a sell - or boy is he; ——— But gold - en locks are sil - ver'd now with gray; ——— No light their heart — a wed - ding soon will be. ——— "Sweet more her songs ring out a - cross the bay. ——— She heart, good - bye, I leave you just once more, ——— Be - looks in vain for him to come a - gain, ——— For fore I wed the one whom I a - dore; ——— But look each day a - cross the deep, deep he sleeps now be - neath the deep blue main, ——— But still she waits with heart that's ev - er blue ——— For the ship that will bring back your boy in blue!" ——— true, ——— And she longs to see a - gain her boy in blue.

Refrain (Not too fast)

The moon - beams fall in sil - ence on the lake; They hear her sigh as if her heart would break; But she waits there — a sweet-heart ev-er true, Look-ing vain-ly for the

1. com-ing of her boy in blue. 2. The boy in blue.
